

I Stand in the Gap for Yuma

A declaration — say it out loud

At the first Passover, the blood in the basin protected nobody until it went on the door. My voice is how it gets applied. I don't just think it. I say it.

I'm not here by accident. God put me in this city on purpose. Acts 17:26

I have authority in Jesus' name — not earned, but because I belong to Him. Luke 10:19

I take my stand in the gap for Yuma. Ezekiel 22:30

Over every home fighting addiction: chains break, in Jesus' name. Freedom for the one who's stuck, strength for the family holding on. Isaiah 61:1

Over every racing mind: peace. Not a spirit of fear — power, love, a sound mind, into every room. 2 Tim 1:7

Over every business and workplace: provision, wisdom, integrity, open doors for the Gospel. Prov 3:5–6

Over every church, pastor, leader: unity, protection, godly wisdom.
If God is for us, who can stand against us? Rom 8:31

I don't stand alone. I stand with the Healing House — equipped, and sent.
The blood of Jesus paid for this city already. I'm saying out loud what heaven settled. Amen.

AT PRAYER NIGHT

I say it with the room.

AT HOME

I pray it over my street.

AS I GO

One line as I pass through.

WHY I SAY IT

I'm tired of watching my city get beat up and feeling like all I can do is worry. I can stand in the gap — out loud, with authority, together with my church. Nobody stands alone. It takes practice. I say it anyway, and watch what changes.
